

THE CLOSING SESSION

Of the Prohibition Assembly down at Mountsville.

FOR THE WHEELING RESCUE HOME.

Mrs. Engle Tells about it and Mr. Sisson Makes a Fruitful Appeal—The Exercises as Interesting as on any Former Day—Mr. Woolley Closes with an Able Speech—Campmeeting To-day.

The morning session of the last day of the Prohibition Assembly opened at 9:30 a. m. yesterday with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. J. Engle, of Wheeling. "Faith" was the theme chosen by the leader for a short exhortation, and in most tender words she admonished her sisters to greater persistence in the good work.

The first topic discussed was: "Is the W. C. T. U. doing all it can to hasten prohibition?" It was presented by Mrs. Jennie McClarkin, of Michigan. Along with many good points made in this paper was a strong appeal for woman's suffrage. To Dr. Buckley's assertion that with the advent of woman's ballot would disappear chivalry among men, she said the most chivalrous men she had ever known were those who favored woman's suffrage.

The second topic was "Loyal Temperance Legion and its Relation to Prohibition," which was the title of a paper prepared and read by Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, of Wheeling. Mrs. Hamilton urged the importance of education on this matter, beginning as soon as children are able to distinguish between right and wrong.

Mrs. Sisson followed this paper in a short talk, giving good testimony to the efficiency of this line of temperance work in the Wheeling union and elsewhere.

Mrs. McClarkin followed with an incident connected with the temperance victory in Norfolk, Va., in which L. T. L. children were the means of bringing parents into the W. C. T. U. and the Prohibition party.

The paper on "Systematic Giving," prepared by Mrs. Rumble and deferred from a former session, was called for, but Mrs. Rumble not being present, the paper was not heard.

Mrs. Engle, of Wheeling, was then invited to the platform to present the work of the Rescue Home of Wheeling, under the control of the Wheeling W. C. T. U. This matter was presented in an earnest and forcible manner, and the duty of Christian womanhood touching it made very plain. Mrs. Engle spoke almost an hour, and was followed by Mrs. Sisson, who made an appeal for financial aid for the home. The appeal was not in vain, and Mrs. Sisson secured a number of pledges for the work.

The hour for adjournment having arrived Mrs. Topp, of Wheeling, led in the noontide prayer and Mrs. Morrow, who has had the morning meetings in charge, announced that after the singing of the doxology the council stood adjourned.

The increased attendance at these meetings from morning to morning is conclusive evidence of their success.

The speaker announced for the afternoon meeting did not appear and after excellent music by the Silver Lake Quartette, Dr. Mead occupied the platform in a twenty minutes' speech, in which he gave some attention to the clergyman "on the fence." Dr. Mead was in his very best vein and made, as he always does, excellent hits from the prohibition point of view.

Rev. J. R. Cooke, editor of the Methodist Advocate, occupied the last half hour of the afternoon, in an earnest and eloquent appeal, to all Christians present to pray for the presence of the Holy Spirit in the campmeeting which begins to-morrow.

John G. Woolley made the closing address of the assembly at 7:30 last evening.

A Chase After Prisoners.

Yesterday Tom Lynch and Jim Leonard got into a fuss in Alley C, creating a big disturbance. Officers Michaels and Bowers got after them, when they ran down Tenth street and on down to Eleventh street to the wharf, where they were overtaken and captured. They spent the day in the lockup. The case is likely to make a very interesting one in the police court this morning.

At the Etina-Standard.

All of the clerks employed at the Etina-Standard iron and steel works have received an increase in their wages of 10 per cent, making them just the same as they were before the reductions.

The mills in operation at the Etina-Standard are sheet No. 1, 10, 11 and 12; jeffing No. 2 and 3; tin No. 5, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16. A house was broken on tin mill No. 4 yesterday. The nine-inch guide mill will resume to-day.

Improvements Up at Mingo.

At Mingo concrete foundations are being put in for the new merchant mill and bricklaying will be commenced some time this week. Wheeling men have painted the smoke stacks at the steel plant and plate mill boilerhouses. The iron roof and sides of the casting house have been painted with asbestos paint by the same parties. The big track scales at the steel works are being removed from the main line of the cupola switch to a siding so that the engines will not have to run across them when putting on cars. Brick masons are at work night and day on the soaking pit.

A. U. U. W. Outing.

The outing of the A. U. U. W. on Thursday will be preceded by a parade at 8:30 a. m. sharp, and all are expected to be in line by that time. The aides, etc., will call at George M. Snook & Co.'s for their gloves. The parade will form on Chapline street, right resting on Twelfth, and move down Ohio to Fourteenth, down Fourteenth to Market, up Market to Tenth, on Tenth to Main, down Main to Twenty-third, up Twenty-third to Chapline, up Chapline to Twentieth, down Twentieth to Market, up Market to Sixteenth, up Sixteenth to Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad station.

"Pawnee Bill's" show.

Pawnee Bill's combined railroad show, historical wild west, Indian museum, grand Mexican hippodrome and exposition of trained animals, and congress of noted chiefs and cowboys, vaqueros and a limitless number of special features, will pay Wheeling a visit Wednesday. It is under a management which has, in the past twelve years, gained a most enviable reputation for dealing honestly and liberally with the public and of presenting many features new and startling, and many feats which delight, amaze and amuse. Our exchanges speak in the highest terms of the character of this grand combination, and it is the kind of show to which readers will extend a hearty welcome.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats. The River Interest.

The Lexington leaves this morning at 11 o'clock for Matamoras and way landings.

The marks last evening showed 2 feet 1 inch and slowly falling. Weather—rain and warm.

TRAVELING FOR NOTHING.

People living along the Ohio river between Cincinnati and Madison, Ind., and for ten miles back into the country on either side are enjoying a picnic just at present all on account of the keen competition that is on between the two rival packet lines, says the Commercial Gazette.

For years the Mail Line Company has controlled the Madison trade. Nearly a year ago John Barrett & Son put in an independent packet. Competition soon became warm. The Mail Line Company steadily reduced rates on passengers and freight in an effort to retain all the business. Finally, the Mail Line announced a round trip fare from Madison to this city of fifty cents. This included meals and berth. To-day the management goes itself one better still.

Com. Laidley, general manager of the Mail Line, yesterday announced that until further notice people living at Madison and intermediate points will be carried to Cincinnati and return free of charge. They will be provided with a berth, but meals will be twenty-five cents extra. Traveling for nothing is an unheard of thing, and the opportunity of riding a distance of 200 miles without paying a cent will doubtless attract all the people the boats can carry. A pessimist remarked, on hearing of the unusual offer, that he would wager there would be some people mean enough to lose the opportunity by waiting until the meals were thrown in with the ride.

The towboat Jim Brown made a trial trip Sunday with a new valve gear which had been invented to take the place of the cam-rod on steamboats. It is claimed for the valve gear that it will save the engineer from climbing over the pitman to oil the cam-rod, and, as this is a very dangerous job in winter, when the pitman is covered with ice, anything that will do away with it will be well received by the craft.

Captain Knowles, who has been in charge of the wreck of the Iron Queen ever since she was burned, has returned to Pittsburgh. The New Idea, with machinery and freight taken from the wreck, is laid up at Sistersville waiting for more water.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. BELLAIKE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

It develops that the Belmont Oil and Gas Company, that was organized here some years ago and put down an oil well at Bothel that flowed for a time, holds twenty year leases on some of the farms in that section. That company was composed of C. Rumbach, J. M. Marling, A. L. Baron, Adam Fappel, Dr. McClure, George W. Keller, F. J. Mahke, J. F. Smith, D. C. Kelly and M. Sonneborn, who owned a one-half interest in the territory, two oil men named Robinson and Steele owning the other half, but their interest was afterwards assigned to S. Wimmer and James C. Tallman.

The property of the Pittsburgh coal works, just south of the city, is to be offered for sale by the sheriff next month. It is a valuable property, and includes a large tract of land. Over $75,000 has been spent on improvements and in keeping the works going, but it is all appraised at about one-third that amount.

George W. Yost, secretary of the Bellairre Bottle Company, was bitten by a dog at his home on Gravel Hill Sunday. The dog was provoked for something, when it made at Mr. Yost and bit him on the right arm. The wound is not a deep one, but it is more than a man wants these days.

Theo. Seals came in from Barnesville yesterday with a bottle of heavy crude oil from the well at that place. The Pittsburgh Dispatch seems to think the well is not worth working, but the operators are still drilling it and expect to go down about eighteen to nineteen hundred feet.

Thieves tried to effect an entrance to Sonneborn Bros' store early yesterday morning, but were frightened away. They were at work in the rear and had about pried a panel of a door out, when some of the neighbors heard the noise and made such a racket that the thieves left.

E. J. Lewis, the Cleveland & Pittsburgh engineer who went to China with the Westinghouse Air Brake people two years ago, secured a lease on oil land in Monroe county through a friend that promises to be valuable. It is a thirty-acre tract not far from the Lewis well.

The butchers here have got up a war on the prices of meat, and a meeting of the local organization will be held this evening at which time they are expected to make the far cry. In the meantime the public is enjoying the war on prices.

A party of Pittsburgh capitalists and contractors came down Sunday evening and early yesterday morning they went with C. Rosser to the Monroe oil field to get the lay of the land and some leases adjacent to the gushers.

John M. Beckett came in from Columbus yesterday. He is interested in the leases of a large block of coal in the southern part of the county, and also some oil leases about Dealville.

Manager Will White, of the Wheeling ball team, spent Sunday with Bellairre friends. He has stirred up more interest in base ball matters here than was ever known before.

D. H. Darrah began to put in the fixtures in his new drug store yesterday and expects to move his family and put his stock in the new building next week.

Frank B. Archer came in from Washington, Ind., yesterday and will spend this week with his family here and in looking after business at home.

J. D. Shaw, of the Mountsville Echo, was here yesterday. He is now dabbling in oil leases.

Mrs. J. D. Baker and children, of Findlay, are visiting relatives here.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25-cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. MARLOW, M. D., Tamaras, Ill.

What Shall I Do?

Is the earnest, almost agonizing cry of weak, tired, nervous women, and crowded, overworked, struggling men. Slight difficulties, ordinary cares, household work or daily labor, magnify themselves into seemingly impassable mountains. This is simply because the nerves are weak, the bodily organs debilitated, and they do not proper nourishment. Feed the nerves, organs and tissues on rich red blood, and how soon the glow of health comes to the pale cheeks, firmness to the unsteady hand, and strength to the faltering limb.

WARM WEATHER IS DOWN.

SOME MERCHANTS would have you believe that trade enters a condition of torpidity about July 1, and remains so till the cool days of September wake it to life and activity again.

But, begging your pardon, that is not true. There is no season of the year in which people do not buy goods; there is no season in which they do not want them. By the same token, there is no season in which it will not pay to advertise.

However, if your neighbor has this old-fashioned notion, and is too conservative to advertise now, there is all the better chance for you. If you think people are not hunting bargains in warm weather, try it.

Everybody is not out of town, by a large majority!
